

Nasser Bin Hamad

International Youth Creativity Award

About the Award

In the framework of strengthening the strategic plan for the Ministry of Youth and Sport Affairs and the implementation of initiatives related to the goals and objectives of the strategy, which in turn is seeking to keep up with global developments in the field of youth. These were then translated into a group of youth programs, to enable young people to enrich the sustainable development and competitiveness in the Kingdom. Then with directives from His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa Representative of His Majesty the King for Humanitarian work and Youth Affairs, The Nasser Bin Hamad Youth Creativity Award was launched in the year 2011 as an initiative from The General Organization for Youth and Sports (at the time).

The NBH Award has sought to spark the creativity within the youth from all over the kingdom in the various fields of interest. After the strong turnout from the Bahraini youth in the first edition, doors opened in the second edition of the award for the youth in all GCC countries in 2012.

The NBH Award represents Bahrain's strong efforts and determination to give back to the youth and aid them in developing their creativity as well as skills in all six fields of the Award. After the success of both editions, the third edition of The NBH Award was launched as an international Award with the theme "Live Your Dream" giving an opportunity for young people from all over the world to participate and express their innovation and creativity with no limits or restrictions in their path.
